

NOTICE TO BENEFICIARIES OF JOHN HENRY DOE TRUST

Date: _____

To: Bob Joseph Doe, 343 Beneficiary Street, Anytown, City 99995

Dear Bob Joseph Doe:

This notice is to inform you that John-Henry: Doe, has executed an irrevocable Express Trust on _____, 2015, naming you as a Beneficiary.

The trustee(s) of the trust is/are:

First Trustee:

John-Henry: Doe
c/o: P.O. Box 652, Main Street

Second Trustee:

Mark-Dennis: Awesome
c/o: 787 Second Trustee Road
Secondtrustee, NY 10101

You do not have to do anything to accept this position. Please see the enclosed Certificate Unit "001". You should keep this in a safe place, as this is proof of your beneficial position in the trust. By accepting the TCU's and this notice, you agree to be bound by the terms of this notice:

1. The exclusive venue and jurisdiction and governing law for JOHN HENRY DOE TRUST is American common law, and with no regard to laws governing conflict of laws. The exclusive forum of adjudication for any and all claims through JOHN HENRY DOE TRUST is with Billybob Protector Trust Company, acting as the exclusive adjudicator, as identified in the Declaration of Trust.
2. You hereby waive the right to use any Statutory public court or venue for raising or settling any claims or disputes arising from your acceptance of this beneficial position, unless agreed to by both trustees in writing. You agree that breach of this clause by opening any lawsuit against the trust or trustees shall constitute a fine of $500,000.00 for each instance, plus any other actual damages.

You may waive your beneficial position in the trust at any time, by providing written notice to either of the two trustees listed above.

The Trustee cannot make distribution to you until you return a signed copy of this letter. This does not mean that you are or will be entitled to a distribution in the near future, as that is determined by the board of trustees, the declaration of trust, and the available wealth or assets in the trust at any time.

Sincerely,

By: _____
