If you still question an item, then you may want to contact the furnisher of the information directly or review the original information in the public record. You may also submit additional documents to us supporting your claim at experian.com/upload or by mail.

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act states that you may:

- request a description of how we processed your dispute, including the business name and address of any furnisher of information contacted in connection with such information and the telephone number if reasonably available;

- add a statement disputing the accuracy or completeness of the information; and

- request that we send these results to organizations that you specifically designate who have requested your credit report, which contained the deleted or disputed information, within the past two years for any employment purposes or within six months for any other purpose (the past 12 months for residents of Colorado, Maryland or New York.) As a word of general precaution, the results can contain sensitive information, as such, you will want to give careful thought when sharing this information.

If you send a request to have your results sent to past recipients of your credit report, please designate the organization's name and address. In the event an organization is not specifically designated, we will generally default to sending only to companies that have requested your credit information as a result of an action you took, such as applying for credit, insurance, employment or apartment rental.

If no information follows, our response appeared on the previous page.

By law, we cannot disclose certain medical information (relating to physical, mental, or behavioral health or condition). Although we do not generally collect such information, it could appear in the name of a data furnisher (i.e. "Cancer Center") that reports your payment history to us. If so, those names display on your report, but on reports to others, they display only as MEDICAL PAYMENT DATA. Consumer statements included on your report at your request that contain medical information are disclosed to others.
